

Attention Boarders

1. There will be no turnout or free lunging in the indoor arena. There will be no more warning and if you are caught by any staff you will be asked to move out.
2. Cleaning the paddocks are the responsibility of the boarders. If you wish to not clean your paddock we will clean it for you at the cost of $30.00 for the small paddocks and $45.00 for the large paddocks per month.
3. If you are the last one to leave the barn please shut the lights off and close the doors behind you.
4. Due to the courtesy of children and other boarders there is to be no obscene language used in the barns or arenas.

Thank you,
Jack Polo

Boarders Name (please print) _____

Signature _____

Please sign and return to the Clubhouse or Jack Polo immediately

January 13, 2006

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES

There is absolutely no lunging in any arena while any person/s are riding. It is not the right of the rider to give permission to lunge. It is a rule instated by MREC not to be overruled by another boarder. Rule #5 in the arena rules. If you are caught you may be asked to move out.

Signed,
Jack Polo