February 2011

Welcome everyone to 2011 and we hope that everyone had a good holiday season. We are already into February and we are just getting ready for a very busy show season.

The 2 phases are starting on February 6th and we will have one also on March 6th and April 3rd.

The Hunter Jumper shows are quickly approaching and the Prize List is at the printers. You should be seeing it on the

At the end of November, Nora Ross came and gave a very successful clinic and is now coming back to get us ready for the show season. She will be at MREC on April 2-3. For the 2 days the clinic will be outside. Nora Ross is from Duncan, BC, and is the Head Trainer for Foxstone Farms. Her students compete and win some of the most prestigious shows in North America. She teaches students in Hunter, Jumper and Stadium Jumping. For information on the Nora Ross clinic, please contact Phyllis Attrill at 604-817-5109 or at mrec@shaw.ca.

We are happy to say that we are
